AS WE SEE IT

By GEORGE JACKSON

It looks like Monterey Peninsula College tried to pull a fast move at the state junior college conference held last week. It seems Hartnell and Monterey had agreed to ask for joint sponsorship of a regional conference at Asilomar during the spring semester. If successful, the school agreed to cosponsor the conference.

At the conference last week Monterey had a brochure prepared, supposedly telling of the advantages of Asilomar as a conference site, which M.P.C. representatives planned to show to the delegates at the meeting.

The strange thing about this brochure was that M.P.C. had "forgotten" to give emphasis to Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula and emphasized the college on the Monterey Peninsula.

Included in the folder M.P.C. had prepared were several photographs of the campus of M.P.C. and literature about Asilomar, but at no time was the name, "Hartnell," mentioned in any way.

Hartnell's delegates were quick to see the implications and talked M.P.C. out of tying together any publicity on M.P.C. and the proposed conference.

The conference was given to Contra Costa following a plea by M.P.C. to "come to Monterey Peninsula and see the sand dunes," so the plan by M.P.C. to exclude Hartnell from sponsorship (but probably include them in the work) didn't come about.

HOMEcoming DAY

Last Saturday's week-end Homecoming Day was certainly a disappointment in many ways to the persons who put in time, energy, and patience to make it a success for students, alumni, and faculty. There were many fine points and qualities brought out in the activities, and they reflected the hard work and care put in by many persons.

However, there was a very poor representation of alumni for a Homecoming Day, and as far as this group was concerned, the event failed.

A great deal of praise should go to the interclub council for its work. More and more this group is taking more responsibility and is coming through in a fine fashion. It is very probable that this group will be one of the strongest and most important in the near future.

Among the individuals who worked hard to make the day a success were Interclub President Gerald Skillicorn and Homecoming Co-ordinator Bill Bell. Both put in hours trying to make the

Delegates Report On Sacramento JC Conference

Reports were heard Monday from five commissioners who attended a state-wide junior college conference at Sacramento last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Ken Yoder, Bill Temple, Hector Burke, Barbara Johnson, and Marjorie Mathers represented Hartnell at the conference. Mr. Jerry Girdner accompanied the group.

Members of the delegation attended workshops and general discussions at the meeting and gave a report which said they had a very enjoyable time.

At a meeting held last week the commission approved a supreme court submitted by Ken Yoder. Members are R. A. Taylor, Paul Parsons, Bill Grossman, John Hendrichson, Art Hedges, Jerry Sweet, Carol Stormont, and Wanda Beckham.

A system of student body card refunds was adopted by the commission at this meeting. Under this program, the student will forfeit 50 cents each week he uses the card. No refunds will be made after the thirteenth week.

Monterey Peninsula College was billed for the damage and labor expenses caused by the painting of the Panther. M.P.C. later agreed to pay for the damage.

'The Heiress' Set For Tonight And Tomorrow Night

"The Heiress," after last evening's successful presentation by the Hartnell Players, will be presented tonight and Saturday night at 8:15 p.m.

The play presented is different from past performances as the tempo of the action is speeded. Slow scenes were almost nonexistent in last night's show.

Miss Helen Wolber, cast as Catherine Sloper, the heiress, did an outstanding job in characterization.

Other members of the cast are: Thomas Rogers, Doctor Sloper; Phyllis Williams, Lavinia Penniman; Bill Nye, Morris Townsend; Charlene Gustafson, Maria; Bonnie Pilliar, Marian Almond; Carla Adams, Elizabeth Almond; Barbara Nye, Mrs. Montgomery; and James O. Smith, Arthur Townsend.

Sophomore men who have not had their class photographs taken for La Reata should check the bulletin board for appointments with Photographer Hurl Swartz.

If you failed to have your photograph taken the first time appointments were posted, don't neglect to fulfill your appointment next week.

New Draft Rules Announced By President Lemos

Regulations concerning students who are in the "delayed induction status" of the selective service were announced recently by President John B. Lemos. He met recently with the local draft boards, 65 and 66.

The students who have fallen into this class are those who have received their preinduction papers, but have been temporarily postponed because they rank in the upper half of their class scholastically.

Draft officials will examine records of these men every six weeks to make sure they are keeping their average up. If any student falls below the mark established during a six-week period, he will be given another six-week period to raise his average.

If he fails to gain into the upper half, the draft board shall be allowed to begin induction proceedings.

The college has also been notified to tell the boards of any change in study loads, excessive absences, or dropping of school.

Lemos advised men to keep their grades up, attend classes regularly, and keep their study loads about the same and they will not have any worries concerning losing their draft postponement.

Ski Club Will Present Dance Saturday Eve

This week's after-game dance will be sponsored by the Ski Club. In keeping with the interests of the Ski Club the theme of the dance will be winterland. Sally McAnaney, decorations committee head, said the men's gym will be decorated accordingly. Sally and her committee have been working hard to develop the winterland scene.

The dance will start after the game and will run till 1 o'clock. June Glanville, music committee head, has secured the services of Herb Miller and his orchestra to provide music for the affair.

Heads of the committees are: Sally McAnaney, decorations; Dick McCormick, publicity; June Glanville, music; and Del Howe, finance and cleanup. Lutz Graf zu Muenster and Del Howe are general chairmen for the event.

Don Schrupp Will Sing Over KFRC Tomorrow Night

Hartnell's own Don Schrupp takes to the air tomorrow night over station KFRC as a contestant on the Marin-Dell amateur hour. Winner of the contest will be chosen by mail vote, so Schrupp has asked all persons who will be able to listen and vote for him. Broadcast time is 8 p.m.

This program will be one of a series of seven which will select finalists to appear on a program on December 23. The winner of this contest will be given contracts for stage appearances and a weekly salary of $200 for the appearances.

Schrupp took part in the program during the summer and was a finalist. In his appearance tomorrow night he will sing "A Son of God's Country Am I" and "Valencia," in addition to a comedy routine.

Hawaiian Club Dance Set for November 18

Hartnell-MPC Act To Stop Vandalism Between Colleges

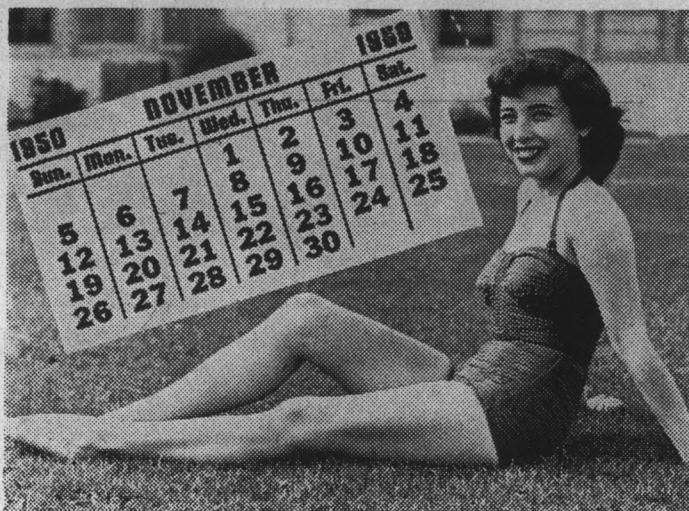

Coming out as an unexpected and radical move, President John B. Lemos announced a mutual agreement reached by the administrations of Hartnell and Monterey Peninsula colleges to prevent vandalism between the two colleges.

Under this agreement, the M.P.C. campus will be off-limits for all Hartnell students, and Hartnell will have the same restrictions for M.P.C. students. Any student who violates the regulations will face dismissal from the college he attends.

This action was taken to end the practice of vandalism that has been such an integral part of the relationship between the two colleges since the establishment of athletic relations with M.P.C. in 1948.

In the same agreement M.P.C. agreed to pay for damage done to the Hartnell Panther when its followers painted the statue twice this year.

UGC-WAA Float Judged Best In Homecoming Day

Tabby mounted his scooter at 4 p.m. last Saturday and proceeded up Main Street to start the Homecoming parade and the many activities of the day. The parade featured 12 floats from the college organizations and was led by the Hartnell marching band.

Judges Hugh Eldridge, Mrs. Carvel Johnson, and Charles Link acclaimed the prize-winning float to be that of the U.G.C. and W.A.A. The two organizations combined their efforts to produce the winning float which portrayed the Hartnell student union, present and future. Also given praise by the judges were the runnerup floats. Second place was the Hartnell A. and M. entry. Third-place honors were given to the Westminster - Christian Fellowship float. Fourth place went to the Ski Club.

Following the parade the chefs began the barbecuing and alumni and students gathered in the cafeteria for the annual feed. Mr. Vahé Aslanian acted as master chef, and he prepared a meal that was enjoyed by all. Mr. Richard Carlisle, who was in charge of the dinner, reported that there was a paid attendance of 78.

Among the 78 in attendance were alumni dating back as far as the class of '32, and from as far away as Los Angeles.

Entertainment was furnished for the group at the dinner by Frank Steinmiller, Frank Paz, Bob Swan, and Vic Fagerroos, who did some of the Spike Jones novelty numbers; Carla Adams, who sang; and Rosalino Quemma, who played the ukelele and guitar.

The highlight of the day was the annual football struggle between Hartnell and Menlo for the "Olde Gaboon" trophy. President John B. Lemos of the college welcomed the crowd following the flag raising and Star Spangled Banner. At halftime the Queen of Homecoming, Miss Ida Garcia, and her royal court were driven into the stadium and introduced to the crowd with his woodsmanship. The field and formed the letters "M" and "H" for the Menlo and Hartnell rooters.

Tabby was busy destroying the Menlo Oak and delighted the crowd with his woodsmanship. Ending the halftime activities, Mr. Ralph Thomsen of the class of 1942, representing the alumni association, presented the Goodfriend trophy for the winning float, and Queen Ida was presented and spoke to the crowd.

Climaxing the day, the Panthers rolled on to defeat the Oaks, 27-7, and the Gaboon was home again. The student body sponsored the Homecoming dance after the game, featuring the music of Herb Miller and his band.

Carlisle Designs Lighting System

New system of lighting which was used at last week's dance was designed by Mr. Richard Carlisle. He has been working on the plans for some time, and the equipment was just completed Saturday in time for the dance.

Mr. Carlisle designed four cones which were used in deflecting the light from the spotlights below them and produce an indirect lighting system. The new lighting removes the problem of the glare received from direct spotlights, and at the same time it keeps the light from the high ceiling of the gymnasium.

Mr. Carlisle also deserves credit for the construction of the device used in the barbecue. This consisted of a series of gears to turn the skewers holding the meat and vegetables over the bed of coals.

Flying Club Gets Stinson Engine

A Stinson engine was acquired by the Hartnell Flying Club, and should be used sometime this week.

Yesterday the club had a 30-minute picture shown at the meeting. A picture is shown every week to the Flying Club. The pictures are about such items as flying conditions, stunt flying, and weather conditions.

The first copy of the Hartnell Flyer was printed Wednesday. It will be issued weekly and it is to be of interest to the members of the club.

Hartnell Student Receives Job

Marian Kwok has been offered a federal civil service position as a stenographer-typist at the Monterey naval air station in Del Monte.

Miss Kwok received the position as a result of passing successfully, and with a high score, a federal stenographer examination last summer.

Home Ec Offers Turkey Dinner

On November 1 the home economics department will demonstrate the carving of turkey or chicken.

Everyone is urged to attend the demonstration. All boys who attend will have a chance to win a free turkey dinner. This will be given by a drawing and the two boys who have the lucky number will be invited to the dinner on November 16 in the home economics living room from 10:30 to 12 o'clock.

Scilacci Shows Color Slides to Newman

Color pictures were shown to a few members of the Newman Club at Don Stoffey's home last Sunday night. The slides were taken by Francis Scilacci while he was in Europe last summer.

Plans are being made to show these color slides at a regular meeting in the near future. The slides which were enjoyed Sunday night are expected to go over very good at the next showing.

CAMPUSOLOGY

By ELMER ANDERSON

A moment of silence was held on the practice field at Hartnell College recently. What was the reason for this moment of silence?

It happened like this. Bob Swan saw a mouse so he threw a football at it. He hit it, naturally, and the poor, little mouse was stunned. Swan then killed it. The funeral services were held.

The services were conducted by the Reverend James "Itchie" Miyasato. The poor mouse was buried by Frank Paz and Bob Burton in the broadjump pit.

That is the reason for the moment of silence.

Pencil sharpeners in the library were put into overuse Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Cars came screeching to a dead stop in front of the college at 11 o'clock Monday morning. Classes came to an abrupt halt at 11 o'clock Monday morning. Students and teachers (men), that is got kinks in their necks at 11 o'clock Monday morning.

What in the world for, you might ask?

Why, at 11 o'clock last Monday morning Ida Garcia was having her picture taken in a bathing suit for the Esquire Girl Pinup Contest. See Page 2 for the result.

Lucky George Jackson and Andy Ausonio were the ones who were taking the pictures. George was posing her, and Andy was doing the camera work.

Noticed that the school photographers really did some overtime work last week end. You should see all the negatives hanging up in the darkroom.

Something always happens to Art Hedges! He was trying to speed-shift his car. What really happened was that he threw out his transmission.

So Art left his car parked out in front of his house. This the police department didn't like. They put the red stickers on his windshield. Did this bother Art? No! He just left it out in front of his house.

Finally Art did move it. What came over him? What made him decide to move the car?

The reason was that Halloween was approaching and he thought it would be best to put it away.

AS WE SEE IT . . .

event successful, but other persons let them down in varying degrees.

There is not a doubt there were problems encountered this year that have not come up in the past. The postponement of the day created a major difficulty and caused a great change in advance preparations.

There was a small number of entries in the parade, and this presented another headache for officials in charge of the parade. The barbecue was very poorly attended. All of these things contributed to make it even harder for the leaders.

Gaboon Is Home Again; Panthers Beat Menlo 27-7

Another game was racked up in the Hartnell win column as the steadily improving Panthers bowled over the Menlo Oaks, 27-7. The "Olde Gaboon" trophy was brought home again in grand style, and the Panthers broke the jinx which has defeated them in the past few years in Homecoming games.

Starting the game with a burst of power, Hartnell scored twice in the first six minutes of play, and the hapless Oaks failed to recover. From then on the game was in the hands of the Panthers, who continued to give the local crowd a fast moving game.

Coach Ab Wilson used his players freely in the contest, and many of the reserves showed that they could handle themselves well. All of the team worked well, and the new spirit of the team should make it a definite contender for the title. Game statistics show the over-all predominance of the Panthers in the contest. They outrushed their opponents 341 yards to 90. Hartnell was heavily penalized, receiving 115 yards, and often had good runs nullified. The soft field and a wet ball joined forces to cause an unusual number of fumbles in the game.

Defensively the team worked like a machine and repeatedly stopped the Menlo thrusts. In the line John Piini, Dick Leffingwell, Ollie Price, and Bob Roebuck proved to be bad news for the Oaks, and R. A. Taylor and Jim Miyasato did a terrific job of line backing. Dave McChesney and Ernie Wilson covered the defensive halfback posts with the same skill demonstrated at San Mateo.

First score for the Panthers came at the end of the first three minutes after Jim Miyasato recovered a fumble on the Menlo 42. Five plays later Bob Omogrosso pushed into the end zone for the score.

Piini converted to make the score 7-0.

Three minutes later the Oaks were backed to their own goal and forced to kick. The pass from the center got away from the Menlo punter and Dick Leffingwell fell on the ball in the end zone for the second Hartnell score. The conversion was not good, leaving the score 13-0 after six minutes of play.

Midway in the second period the Panthers boosted their score again by dropping the Menlo punter in his own end zone after another high pass from center had gotten away from him.

With two minutes remaining in the half Menlo kicked to Skrine who was brought down on the Hartnell 48. Omogrosso raced the ball down to the Menlo three before being brought down, and then after one attempt had failed Frank Ryder skirted his own left end to score as the gun sounded ending the half. Again the conversion failed and the Panthers led at the half, 21 to 0.

Final tally for the Panthers came in the third period as the climax to a 67-yard drive. Bob Swan passed from the seven to End Ken Dias in scoring territory. The conversion was wide.

Lone score for the Oaks came as the result of a blocked kick in the final quarter which was recovered by Menlo in the Hartnell end zone.

Offensively the many outstanding Panther runners included Bob Omogrosso, Frank Ryder, Ev Skrine, and John Gerard. Ends Dias and Chuck Jackson caught some fine passes for the Hartnell cause.

Panthers, Pirates In Crucial Contest

Tomorrow night the Hartnell Panthers enter the Salinas stadium to do battle with the Modesto Pirates in what might be the most decisive game of the season for the local team. For the past two weeks the Panthers have been on a come-back trail, and might well be the choice to win the conference title if they can get by the Pirates this week.

Beating the Modesto team may not prove as easy as it sounds on paper for they are backed by an impressive record. They have a win over Stockton and it might be remembered that it was the same Stockton team which defeated Hartnell in the league opener.

Coach Ab Wilson expects to be using the same boys who boosted Hartnell to her second victory last Saturday. The team morale has been improving greatly recently and with the importance resting in this game, the team should be high for the contest.

Coach Wilson will go along with Bob Roebuck at the captain post again this week. Coach Ab is just a little superstitious and has decided to go along with his winning captain. Roebuck has captained the team in the three winning games this year.

The Modesto roster shows that the Pirates will bring down a heavy team to face the Panthers. Advance reports also indicate that they will present a new defense for the Hartnell men to cope with.

Hartnell expects to be near top form and ready for the game.

It is not certain yet whether Frankie Paz will be ready to go again in his old form, but other Hartnell injured men are back in prime shape. Tomorrow is the big night for the Panthers.

Skillicorn Badminton Finalist

Jerry Skillicorn distinguished himself again in the world of badminton last week by climbing to the quarterfinals of the state badminton amateur tournament. He was seeded eighth in the contest and played well before being eliminated in the quarterfinals.
